Buckingham

Not for several years have there been so many lawyers here at the opening day of Circuit Court. by actual count made by a lawyer friend there were twenty lawyers in the court-room at one time: Dickinson, Campbell, Strode, Thompson, Watkins, Smith, Coleman, Hubard, Hall, Rogers, Boatwright, Irving, Patteson, Moon, these are all I can remember.

Automobiles were so numerous that they had to be parked in city fashion to get room on the public grounds to place the cars. Horses and horse-drawn vehicles were scarce in comparison.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Glover and several of their friends motored to Farmville Friday to witness the padgeant and do some shopping.

Mr. Thomas B. Hall was employed to travel last week in the interest of the Tobacco Association and he will continue the work in Amherst and probably in Fluvanna and Cumperland counties; Mr. Hall is very enthusiastic in the cause; he is a good mixer and a good man for the position.

Mr. Peter Shepherd of this place, has gone to Appomattox depot to live and will take his daughters with him as soon as the High School here closes.

Mr. Willie Shepherd is engaged with the Duval Motor Company, in Farmville.

A negro named Frank Trent was tried here on May 9th before Dr. P. E. Tucker and Dr. G. L. Morris and Justice of Peace Haskins, and ordered sent to the Central State Hospital.

There was a meeting of the County School Board here during Circuit Court and it was decided to employ agents to handle the school books for this county. Mr. A. C. Garrett is to be offered the agency here Mr. W. R. Connor at Dillwyn and The Williams Slate Company at Arvonia. Agents who handle these new books will receive 20% commission on the sales they make. It has been said by someone that a school trustee seldom dies and he never resigns, but now comes in the new Virginia school law placing all the public schools in the hands of i as many trustees as were formerly employed and we shall see a considerable change and we hope for the better.

Cherries and June apples are growing apace, we have been eating cultivated strawberries and we are watching the black and dew berry blooms with real interest.

A negro is in jail here charged with shooting another negro named Sam Brown, near Wingina.

The grandjury at Circuit Court brought in an indictment against a negro for breaking into the store house of Mr. S. B. Pearson, at Dillwyn, the principal evidence vs. the accused is the fact that the blood hounds ran on a trial that led to the house where this man is said to have been.

A negro man named Robert Miller, died at his home near Mt. Vinco, last week and his attending physician gave as the cause of death "Rheumatic fever".

Mr. W. Lee Patteson continues quite unwell at his home and is attended by Dr. Thomas Patteson.

In a short while the backs of tobacco planters will ache from planting so many tobacco plants and they will have my sympathy without my help.

A lady admirer of Lady Astor went from here to hear her speak and she said one must see that bright face and hear her voice to appreciate her.

Wildwood

We all enjoyed the good sermons preached at Evergreen M E church Sunday by Rev. Z. V. Johnson.

Mrs. E. G. Harvey has been visiting relatives in this neighborhood the past week.

Mrs. Lillie Moses spant Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. N. Harvey.

Messrs. Walker and Tommy Jennings gave a party Saturday night. All who attended reported a nice time and left wishing the rest of the boys would wake up and give us another party soon.

Mr. W. J. Glover, of Crewe, was the week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Glover.

Misses Ora Harvey and Lucile Moses and Messrs. Dillard Baker, John Paulette, Gilbert Dinkins and Tommy Jennings were guests of Miss Susie Evans Sunday.

It is reported that Mr. George Shrieve was married to Miss Hamlet, of Red House, Saturday.

Girls have patience, Wildwood boys have started at last, so maybe we will get to vamp one yet.

Dr. Peters will speak at the Methodist church Friday night Everybody go and hear the good Orator.

The school teachers, Misses Inge and Morris have been missed very much by our social circle. We hope to have them back at Evergreen another session.

Vera

The Vera High School commencement was a success from every stand point. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Rev. H. P. East on Sunday night, May 7th. Tuesday night a very interesting program consisting of choruses, readings, dialogues, dirlls, orations and pantomine were successfully conducted throughout. On Wednesday night a play "My Wild Irish Rose" was given, after which diplomas were delivered to Misses Evelyn O'Brien, Anna Ferguson and Vara Morris.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mr. Shelton Ferguson.

Mrs. Albert Beale continues very ill with no hopes of recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Garrett are the happy possessors of a fine baby girl.

Miss Otys Childers left for Lynchburg Saturday, to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Edgar LeFew.

Birthday Celebration

The following children and grandchildren met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Marsh, near Oakville, Sunday, May 14, to celebrate the former's 82nd birthday: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Marsh and children—Earle, Olive, Howard, Margaret, Rachel, Raymond, and Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Lucado and daughter, Louise; Mr. R. H. Lucaco and sons—Robert, Harry and Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Marsh; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas and children—Malcolm, Edith, Naomi, Virginia and Frances; Mrs. B. A. Horsley and children—Vaida, Lillian and Calvin, of Rustburg, and Miss Geneva, of Lynchburg; Mrs. L. H. Childers and sons — Leonard, Jr., Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williamson and son, Mervyn of Spout Spring.

A good dinner was served which all seemed to enjoy. A family reunion had been planned. The disappointment of all was that Mrs. T. B. Doss and Mrs. C. R. Harris were unable to be present.

APPOMATTOX FARM

By virtue of a decree entered in the Chancery Cause of the Monongahelia City Trust Co, guardian, &c, vs. Mrs. Maria Rasser, Rebecca and Bartley Connelly, at the April term 1922, of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, I will offer for sale at public auction in front of Appomattox C. H., Va., on Thursday, June 1st, 1922, at 12 m. the following real estate in these proceedings mentioned.

That certain tract of land with the improvements and appurtenances thereto belonging, situated about six miles South of Appomattox C H, adjoining the lands of C. H. Allen, C. H. Godsey, R S. Mayberry and others, containing by survey of W. A. Moses 101 9 acres, which P. W. Connelly died seized and possessed.

This is a very desirable property, close to school and church, well located, with water, cleared land, orchard The buildings consist of 4 room house, barn and other buildings in bad repair. The land is especially adapted to the growth of bright tobacco.

Terms: One third cash on day of sale, residue on a credit of one and two years' time, deferred payments to bear interest from day of sale and evidenced by bonds of purahaser containing waiver of homestead exemption and title retained until purchase money is fully paid.

For Torpid Liver

"Black-Draught is, in my opinion, the best liver medicine on the market," states Mrs. R. H. Whiteside, of Keota, Okla. She continues: "I had a pain in my chest after eating—tight, uncomfortable feeling—and this was very disagreeable and brought on headache. I was constipated and knew it was indigestion and inactive liver. I began the use of Black-Draught, night and morning, and it sure is splendid and certainly gives relief."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

For over seventy years this purely vegetable preparation has been found beneficial by thousands of persons suffering from effects of a torpid, or slow-acting liver. Indigestion, biliousness, colic, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pain in back, puffiness under the eyes—any or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too careful about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, "Thedford's Black-Draught," is on the package. At all druggists.

Her Money Was Gone!

An old woman who lived alone had kept nearly $2,000 00 in currency around her house for years. She was afraid of banks.

Last fall she became seriously ill, and——

No, she didn't die. But when she went to look for the cash it was gone! Fortunately some honest friends had found it while she was unconscious and had deposited it to her credit in a bank.

This woman has now decided that after all the bank is the safest place, and, besides, her money is not idle any longer. It is now earning 4 per cent for its owner.

Let us put your money to work for you.

SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES FOR VIRGINIA'S GREAT HISTORICAL PAGEANT-DRAMA, BEGINNING, MAY

SIX BIG STREET PARADES AND PAGEANT-DRAMA, BEGINNING, MAY

Spectacular Military Features of Battle of Chancellorsville, Surrender at Appomattox to be Shown in Pageant Drama Each Night of Pageant Week—Richmond Ready for Thousands of Visitors Expected—Period Parades Each Morning.

Richmond, May 17.—The Virginia Historical Pageant—six nights of pageant-drama depicting the stirring events of the Colonial, Revolutionary, Confederate and later day periods and six parades of artistic floats representing some incident or episode in Virginia's march of progress since Captain John Smith landed at Jamestown in 1607, begins in this city on Monday next, May 22, and will continue throughout the week. Special reduced railroad tickets will be sold from May 21 to May 26, inclusive, with a return limit to May 30. Because these special rates there will be special trains operated on five special days as follow:

Tuesday, May 23 — "Alexandria Night," when a cast from Alexandria will put on a special episode.

Wednesday, May 24—"University of Virginia and Charlottesville night," with players from the University of Virginia will enact a special scene.

Thursday, May 25—Roanoke night," with a large cast from that city will present an historical scene, "The Gate City to the South."

Friday, May 26—"Norfolk night," when Norfolk players will show "The Monitoring of the Merrimac." Norfolk authorities have proclaimed a special holiday for Friday and special trains will bring thousands to the event.

Saturday, May 27—"Williamsburg night," when players from the College of William & Mary, will put on a colonial scene.

Monday "Coronation Day."

The first pageant to correctly depict Virginia's history will open on Monday night. It will be featured with the "Coronation Parade," and the crowning of the queen—"Virginia the First," by Governor E. Lee Trinkle. This will take place on the South portico of the Virginia State capitol building, designed by Thomas Jefferson. On the following day out of state editors will be entertained, and during the week the editors of Virginia papers will be entertained. Special boxes will be provided for the scribes.

Four Historic Balls.

On the evening Tuesday night four historic balls will be given. The dances will be costumed to represent the colonial, Revolutionary and Confederate periods, and on Friday night the ball will be featured with the crowning of the "Queen of the Tournament," the honor of which will be tilted for on the Virginia State Fair Grounds on Friday afternoon.

Saturday "All-Virginia Day."

The parade on Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock, will be featured with the floats of the various historical periods, and besides these there will be specially designed commercial floats bringing out the march of progress of industry since the days of the early Indian. There will be shown the first from mill in Virginia, the reaper invented in the United States and many other interesting inventions and things relative to Virginia as the Mother of States."

Reduced Railroad Fares

Authorization has been given by railroads entering Richmond for sale of tickets at the rate of one-half fare for the round trip.

These special reduced rates will be sold from May 21 to May 26, inclusive, and for trains scheduled to arrive in Richmond on the morning of May 27, with a return limit good to May 30. The following lines will sell tickets, on the basis outlined above, from territory specified as follows:

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad—from Wilmington, Pembroke, Maxton and intermediate points; also from Hamberton via V. & C. S. Railway, Mills and A. C. L.

Chesapeake and Ohio Railway—from Virginia and West Virginia points.

Norfolk and Western Railway—from Virginia and West Virginia points.

Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway—from Virginia points.

Norfolk Southern Railroad—from all stations.

Reduced Rates From Washington

Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad—from Virginia stations and Washington, D. C.

Attention is called in this connection to the fact that from Washington these reduced rate tickets will be sold only May 25 and 26, with final limit May 30.

Seaboard Air Line Railway—from Virginia and points in North Carolina Rutherfordton, Hamlet, Wilmington and Intermediate points.

Southern Railway—from Virginia and North Carolina up to Asheville but not west of Asheville.

Virginian Railway—from Virginia and West Virginia stations.

Some of the railroads have announced special reduced rates, on the basis of one fare for the round trip, return limit day after date of sale, tickets to be sold only from cities taking a special part in the pageant, and to be sold only from these cities on their respective days of participation as outlined in the second paragraph of this story.
